Attendence Policy

Roll will be called at the beginning of each recitation. You will pass MA 193 if you have no more than 2 unexcused absences during MA 113 recitations and you pass MA 113. If you fail MA 113 or have 3 or more unexcused absences in recitation, you will fail MA 193. You will be marked absent from recitation if you

1. Miss class entirely, without an excuse, or
2. Leave early, without an excuse, or
3. Arrive more than ten minutes late, without an excuse, or
4. Forget to bring the day's materials which may include scratch paper and problems sets.

In-class Technology Policy

Texting, gaming, and any other use of technology that will detract from—rather than enhance—the classroom environment will be seen as a breach of conduct, and they will not be tolerated. The classroom is a shared space, please respect others. Please only use technologies when expressly stated by instructor.

Academic Honesty Policy

Cheating will not be tolerated. Please refer to the Student Code of Conduct, Part II, Section 6.0 for the University's definition of cheating. Any suspected offenses will be brought to the course instructor, and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken.

Where to Get Help

As teachers, we want you to succeed. In addition to the office hours listed above (check the calendar on the course webpage for the most up-to-date times. Other times are available by appointment), there are other places where you can drop in to get help, like Mathskeller and The Study.
